

K-love is the only non-commercial station that plays non-stop christian music in our area. If it goes out of the air, my children and I'm sure others won't have anymore positive station they can listen to. It is the only one here in our valley that serves our christian community in a way that is very encouraging.